On taking possession of his titular Church in Rome, St. Mary of the People, after being raised to the dignity of a Prince of the Church, Cardinal McGuigan quite spontaneously expressed the hope that the Assumption would soon be defined as an article of faith. The Roman press featured the Cardinal's hope, and learned theologians came to him for giving public support to and thereby accelerating a movement that had been going on quietly for some time.

November the first,

Feast of All Saints,

of the HOLY YEAR

And so, after much prayer offered in supplication to God, much invocation of the Holy Spirit, to the glory of God omnipotent, who has bestowed on the Blessed Virgin so great a favour, to the honour of his Son, the King of ages, the immortal, conqueror of sin and death, to the greater praise of this same holy Mother, and to the joy and jubilee of the whole Church, by the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ, and of his blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, and by the authority granted to us, we proclaim it, we declare it, we define it, as a doctrine divinely revealed: That the immaculate ever-virgin Mother of God, her earthly life ended, was taken up, body and soul of her, into the glory of heaven. Wherefore if any man, which God forbid, should dare wittingly and willingly to deny or call in question the doctrine we have so defined, be it known to him that he has thereby fallen away from the Divine faith of the Catholic Church.

From the Bull MUNIFICENTISSIMUS DEUS, translated by Msgr. Ronald Knox

His Holiness Pope Pius XII

to the Lady

whom the dogma concerns

Virgin immaculate, God's Mother, Mother of mankind, with all the faith that glows in our hearts, we believe! We believe that you were taken up, body and soul of you, victoriously to heaven, where all those choirs of angels, all those thronging saints, cried aloud in welcome. We join with them in praising and blessing God, who has raised you so high above all creatures that are but creatures; we offer you the breathless tribute of our worship and our love.

A mother's gaze, that dwelt so fondly on the humanity of Jesus, humbled and suffering on earth, in what content, now, it rests on the humanity of the uncreated Word, glorified in heaven! How that soul rejoices, how that heart thrills with blessed longing, as you contemplate the adorable Trinity face to face! And we, poor sinners, our souls caged by the body's grossness, implore you to purify our senses, till, in all the charm of created things, we learn to taste God, nothing but God.

All this we know; and of this, too, we are confident, that your merciful glance falls on sorrow and anxiety of ours, striving and weakness of ours; that those lips are parted in a smile over happiness of ours, triumphs of ours; with each of us, as once with the Beloved Disciple, you are conscious that the voice of Jesus is saying to you "Here is thy son". By the name of Mother we appeal to you; like John, all through this mortal life we look to you for guidance, for support, and for comfort.

And this life-giving assurance we have; those eyes, that wept over earth the blood of Jesus had watered, still look toward this world of ours, a prey, now, to wars and persecution, to oppression of the helpless and the innocent. And our eyes, benighted in this valley of tears, are fixed on your beacon-light that shines above us; to all our heaviness of heart, to the Church and to our country, your tender pity will bring relief.

This, too, we believe, that where you reign in glory, clothed with the sun, crowned with the stars, all the angels, all the saints, find their whole content, their whole happiness in you. And we, passers-by and pilgrims on earth, yet comforted by the resurrection that shall be ours, look up to you, our life, our love, our hope; lead us on, spell-bound with the accents of your voice, and at last, our exile done, show us the blessed fruit of your womb, Jesus. Mary, blessed Virgin, who was ever so kind, so pitying, so dearly loved?

Prayer composed by Pope Pius XII in honour of the Assumption

Message from the Superior General

Three events combine to make 1950 a wonderful year for the boys of St. Michael's, and for the men who once were boys at the School. It is the year which marks the passing of a century since the Basilian Fathers came to Toronto, and by a happy co-incidence it is the year when the wonderful New School is opened. Finally to crown its distinction it is the year in which the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin is defined as a dogma of faith.

Girding itself like a giant to run its course in the second century of its history, St. Michael's contemplates its storied past with gratitude to the first Basilians, particularly Fr. Moloney, who was the first to arrive in 1850, bringing with him the ancient faith from Ireland, the land of his birth, and the Catholic culture of Western Europe from France, the land of his education and adoption. Despite this international flavor, which St. Michael's has never quite lost, the early Basilians were entirely French, a fact which should not be forgotten when politicans are talking of abandoning Western Europe.

The first permanent home of the Basilians on Clover Hill (what has become of the hill?) reflected their French origin, as can be seen today in the central section of the old building. This outward sign of the transplantation of an old culture was varied as the years rolled on to the more practical, if characterless style of the new addition on Bay Street in 1902. One can divine from the style that St. Michael's was at that time still uncertain about itself, about its immediate aims and methods, unable for one thing, to decide whether to remain academically in the European tradition entirely or become Canadian.

All uncertainty of that kind would appear to have long since passed. The style of the new building reflects a clearness of purpose, though it may also be said to reflect the sterner task which Catholic education will have in achieving its aims in a neo-pagan world. The new St. Michael's imposes itself upon our vision, fortresslike for the cause of Christ, but its severity of mien is relieved by the majestic tower, rising like a canopy over the Blessed Sacrament in the chapel beneath, holding aloft the cross, the symbol of hope, and proclaiming to the whole city that this is a Catholic School. Truly it can be said in the language of Scripture that St. Michael's is girded like a giant to run its course in the second century of its history.

But if it took a long stretch of years for St. Michael's to achieve an individuality of its own, there is one feature of its story that has never varied. It is devotion to the Blessed Virgin. Our earliest records, recently discovered in France, describe a touching incident which has a bearing here and which should not again be forgotten. It has to do with Charles Vincent, then a Basilian seminarian, later to become for a quarter of a century the leader of the Basilians in America. When the little band of pioneers arrived and took temporary school quarters on Queen Street near the Cathedral, Charles Vincent gathered materials from the Irish immigrants, parents of the first College boys, and erected a shrine to the Blessed Virgin, around which the little community gathered to sing the Salve Regina as they used to do in their Motherhouse in France. That was the beginning in St. Michael's of the devotion to the Mother undefiled, against whom the gates of heaven were never closed.

St. Michael's had scarcely come into being, was at best a mere stripling, when the Immaculate Conception was defined as a dogma of our faith in 1854, and so its whole century of history lies practically within the time between the definition of the Immaculate Conception and the definition of the Assumption. It is little wonder therefore that devotion to Mary should have entered deeply into its tradition. The oldest continuous record that we have in Toronto are the Sodality minute books. It is there we find the names of early students, and have the best approach to a reconstruction of the history of the early years. Devotion to Mary runs like a thread of royal purple through the whole record and therefore it is easy to understand why for the boys of St. Michael's the letter "M" signifies not only Michael, their titular saint, but Mary, the Queen of all Saints, and why for them it is a matter of supreme joy that their wonderful year of 1950 should be made exceedingly more wonderful by the addition of a new jewel to Mary's crown through the definition of the Assumption.

Very Reverend Father Edmund J. McCorkell, C.S.B.

Message from the Principal

The world in which you are living is a very insecure one. War and rumours of war harrass men today from every side and the very framework of our civilization seems to be crumbling. Some students may feel that in these times their education is wasted, that the traditional truths are no training for the uncertain future. Some of you may wonder too, at our seeming folly in building a new school, preparing for peace while the world girds itself for war, putting something up when the whole world seems to be crashing down. You might guess the answer to that question if you looked up, up at the flashing column of glass and stone, surmounted by a cross — St. Michael's tower. There are no classrooms in that tower. Judged by materialist standards it is useless, even as the spire on the Cathedral in Chartres or the dome on St. Peters is useless. But your eyes are lifted up, your heart is raised, you perceive a symbol of eternal beauty, raised by men to honour the Maker of all beauty. Why should we honour Him in this way and especially at this time? Why should we study, when in a few years we may be called upon to fight, even to give our lives? It is to answer these questions that I address you here.

An American statesman, Mr. John Foster Dulles, said in January, "A United States which could be an inactive spectator while the barbarians overran and desecrated the cradle of our Christian civilization would not be the kind of United States which could defend itself." Thus he says that America to be able to fight and even to have anything worth fighting for, must hold true to her principles and maintain the right. Now considering ourselves, not just as Canadians or as members of the Atlantic Pact, but as men, you and I wish to defend free mankind from the extinction that could follow total war. We want to preserve man. Would you take arms if a foreign power threatened to destroy all dogs and cats? Would you give your life on the field of battle in the cause of domestic pets? There is a difference in man! You affirm that he has a value beyond these others! This is the basis of the philosophical idea of Humanism.

Now there is a false humanism which puts emphasis on intellectual and physical development alone, and contends that human reason by its own efforts can attain for man on this earth his sublime end — Heaven. But there is another Humanism, a True Humanism, which sees man not as the lonely protagonist of his own destiny, but as a rational creature, made by God — Our Father — and loved by Him, and destined to be happy forever with Him in Heaven. God wills that we achieve this Destiny by excercising the gifts and powers which he has given, and it is only in this context that man has any value. If men were to cease bowing to their Creator-Father, if never again was a man to think as St. Thomas Aquinas thought, if no discoveries like Banting's were ever again to be made, if no man were ever again to write as the Bard of Avon wrote, . . . if Religion, and Philosophy, and Science, and Art were to perish forever, then man would not be worth preserving from extinction.

This is why the traditional truths are a real training for your future. This is why your Cardinal Archbishop and the Basilian Fathers have built the new St. Michael's. This is why you study beneath the shadow of a tower raised on high. In your hands is the glorious destiny of real men, to be and to become ever more surely, true sons of God.

When we, as alumni, recall the events of the first year in the new building of St. Michael's College School, high on our memory list will be the organization and activities of the Student Council.

This organization was instituted, as our constitution states, to act as a medium between the faculty and the student body, to aid in maintaining discipline by cooperation rather than by compulsion, to promote school spirit, and to encourage all activities carried on within the school in the interests of the students'.

The representatives of your Student Council have endeavoured to uphold this constitution to the best of their abilities. However their ultimate success lies with each student himself. Has he gained a fuller appreciation of, and a deeper insight into true Catholic citizenship?

Congratulations are in order:

be born again . . .

Once upon a time perhaps faurteen years ago, away back in nineteen thirty-six, a number of lads were born who were destined to be the first First-Formers in a new St. Michael's College School. Not that the pictures opposite were taken in nineteen thirty-six really. In fact the nurse (in reverse) is engaged to be married this summer, and the Baptism took place in Holy Rosary Church's new Baptistry, just completed last fall and still without its baptismal font when the picture was taken.

But essentially the same events as these did occur in nineteen thirty-six — with the boys on the following pages then the centre of attention.

That too was an age which was twisted out af its true pattern. Those were the days which saw ironical little signs saying "Wasn't the depression terrible!" It would have taken more than a prophet; it would have been a dreamer who would at that time have said of this new born son, "He will go to High School to a new St. Michael's. He will be a member of the first class to take its whole course at St. Michael's on the hill, this time a new Clover Hill, and, as ever, bigger."

That is why congratulations are in order: to the men of hope who planned our new school, to the men with an eye for beauty who designed it, to the boys who were to be its first class, who were to see the life to which they were born graw and wax strong at the new St. Michael's an the hill: not only their natural life, but the new life to which they were born at Boptism as well. May they indeed grow and wax strong, naturally and supernaturally, they . . .

And so farewell. When you first read this, boys — graduates — men, you will be thinking less of leaving High School than of those monstrous Senior Matriculation examinations just around the corner. But just around the corner, too, is the time when you will be alumni — the first from the new school. It's going out into the cruel world you are. Don't be too hard on it.

You will remember that wonderful priest whose picture you see above. He knew, you remember, about boys, and exams and things. He knows still more now. Get him praying for your exams, but above all keep him in your prayers as alumni. It is he, and the likes of him, that will make you successful, as students, as alumni, genuinely successful, as he himself was.

We have been helped by him
As boys; Let us be like him.

The tiniest teams here at St. Michael's battled through the football season; when the smoke had cleared Mr. Morshall's Western team was on top, having lost only one game. The remaining teams finished in this order: Mr. Scott's McGill, Bernard Kelly's Varsity, and Frank Rush's Queens.

In the playoffs, Western rolled over Queens in two straight games, and McGill took Varsity two straight.

That set the stage for the finals. After tying one game and losing three, McGill gave way to Western's power. John and Ted Malczuk sparked the winners; Ken Kratchik and Don O'Brien fought hard in a losing cause.

When the New School played the Bay St. School, the Bathurst Battlers were plowed under by a heavier team to the tune of 16-10. The first team for the New School consisted of John Timko, John Danesi, Barry Colloghon, and Joe Walsh from Western, John Ferrigan from McGill, and last but not least, John Weber of Varsity.

The Senior House League has long been knawn for its spectacular style of play. Here, where glory is nil and love of the game reigns supreme, the stars of tomarraw da battle against one another. Even as I write, I feel again the fesh autumn breeze as it eases the practice passes through the air; once again I stand watching the teams prepare for one of their big games . . .

The Roughriders had to win this one. The all important third place depended on this crucial battle with the top ranking Allouettes. Excitement charged the air as the opening whistle blew. Playing inspired ball, the Roughriders battled their way to the one yard line. The quarterback called an extension play. However, as a Rider back reached for the pitch-out, Frank Levick of the Als smashed through , snatched the ball in mid-air, and galloped the length of the field for a major score! The inspired Allouettes then swept on to victary. Reversals of this kind were cammon. For that reason, spectatars and players alike won't soon forget the Senior House Leogue of 1950.

The final whistle blew, the championship game was over. Both teams huddled once more — to cheer their valiant opponents. Then amid the cheers of the Millen Stadium crowd, the Titans, City Bantam Champions, marched off the field. They had defeated the Rockets 6-5 in a hard fought game. It was the end of a great football season, but not the end of football for these sweaty grinning boys.

For several years now at St. Mike's, a four team Bantam system has been operating. Some eighty boys, each year, have been picked from the junior forms, promoted from intramural house leagues to play real T.R.U. football. They are grounded in fundamentals, initiated in field strategy and taught how to play hard. They learn how to win and lose, how to cheer their opponent, whether victor or vanquished. Each year these eighty boys receive a special strengthening of character and each year a few more graduate to the reserve or senior team. When the Bantam all star team was picked, eleven players from the victorious Titans and six of their brother Rockets were on the list. S. M. C. scores against Del B's.

It came as no surprise to the supporters of the Double Blue that their Senior "B" team had gained top honours in the Ontario Catholic Athletic Conference Senior "B" football group. It had been their year from start to finish and what a year! In league competition the Bee's were neither defeated, tied nor scored upon. It is not taking anything away from the other teams in the Conference when we say that St. Michael's had by far the better team, their record proves that.

A few players of the team should stand out in our memory. Len McGravey, a very smooth passer and clever quarterback deserves a hearty pat on the back for expert leadership on the gridiron. Len was ably assisted by Jack Reid, half who not only dazzled the enemy with his aerial attacks, but did a fair job at scoring TD's, and kicking the converts as well. Pete Wood spent a considerable amount of time running over the enemy goal line with the ball tucked securely under his arm. The choice for the Most Valuable Player Award was a wise one for no one was more deserving than Pat Nealon, a young man who will be heard from in future years in this pigskin pastime. To those unsung heroes, the line men and those other stalwarts on the team, we can only say, congratulations fellows, on a job well done.

CHAMPIONS

St. Michael's, the Senior A Champions in the Ontario Catholic Athletic Conference are most deserving of their laurels. On Sunday, November 12, they defeated St. Jerome's, Kitchener, in a sudden death final, and climaxed a highly successful season by capturing the Ross Trimble Trophy. In league competition, the team was undefeated, and in exhibition games with Toronto schools, it performed hardly less well.

Johnny Holden, Paul Roche, Bill Tattersall, Gary Schreider and Gene Cuccia sparked the Irish's backfield. Gary was the top scorer in the Conference. His speed and ability will earn many honours for him in seasons to come. Paul, in the fifty-one to five victory over the determined De La Salle squad, scored four majors for the winners.

Other stars on the team include: Al Sutton and Ron Hummel — quarterbacks; Ernie and Frank Harwich, Barry Riordon, Bill Renaud, Mike Lisko, Ian McAllister — line men; and centre Joe Haulton.

Congratulations to our coach Mr. Lew Barnes, and his assistants Mr. Kelly C.S.B. and Mr. Cam McClellan, under whose guidance St. Michael's Senior A Football Team were Champs in the 1950-51 season.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL TEAM

The introduction of basketball to S.M.C. meant a considerable loss of sleep for the members of the Freshman team. However the early morning practices have not been in vain. The Frosh have already shown that hard work and cooperation produce favourable results. Learning any new game requires a constant drill on fundamentals, an assignment which is often very tedious and discouraging. Our Freshman quintet has proved itself equal to the task. If these boys continue to show the teamwork and enthusiasm displayed thus far, it is certain that in the near future our hardwood teams will also find a place in the long list of champions developed at our school.

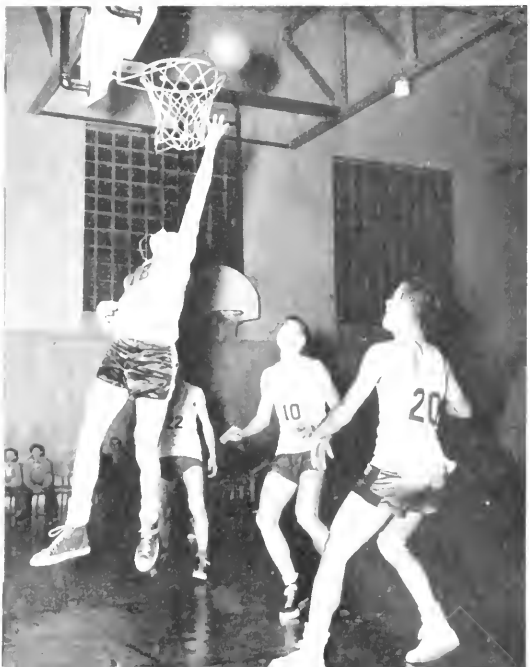
An outnumbered Henry Clarke (24) manoeuvers into position against De La Salle

High, handsome, and certainly not wide of the mark. Jack Reid goes in for a basket and his medal chain, spinning the law of gravity, etches a line on the gym's glass brick windows.



The fact that basketball has no tradition at St. Michael's made the formation of a Junior team somewhat of a problem. The Freshmen had the advantage of not being expected to be familiar with the game. The Seniors were able to find a nucleus of experienced players. The Juniors? The Juniors were in the middle; neither fish nor flesh; and not infrequently between the devil and the deep blue sea.

By next year the humble Juniors will have outgrown their awkwardness. They will be veterans of a year, upholding the glory of St. Michael's in the new game of basketball, a game which in years to come will bring fame to the Irish as have hockey and football in the past.

Senior Basketball

The talented and willing efforts of Fr. Crowley, Mr. Beaune and Mr. Donoher, made the swish of the nets and the pounding on hardwood familiar sounds around St. Michael's this year.

For a school so steeped in hockey lore, the enthusiastic response has been heartening. An inter-form league involving twenty-three teams and more than four hundred players staged three and one half months of thrilling, if not talented, basketball. The success of this league is due in no small part to the planning and promotion of Mr. Egsgard, Mr. Wm. Kelly and Mr. Klosterman.

Mr. Donoher's Freshman team enjoyed a successful season, losing only one game. More will be heard of such stars as Barry Callaghan, Edward Lynch, Joseph Young, Joe Egan.

Mr. Beaune was given an almost impossible task of moulding a Junior team from players that were entirely inexperienced. However, with their grounding in the fundamentals, they will provide excellent material for future Senior teams.

The Senior team played like veterans against all opposition. Their record of fourteen wins against three defeats rates them on a par with most teams in the province. Hugh Coyle, our captain from Brooklyn, New York, was the scoring star and was followed closely by Al Sutton, Ivern Davis, and Paul Donahue. With a year of experience such players as Kearns, Flanagan, Matsalla, Graham, Brock, and Smeaton insure us of a great team next year.

Minor Bantams

Selecting the Minor Bantam team has always been recognized as a most difficult assignment. This year, of course, was no exception, and coaches Len McGravey and Charlie McCarthy can now take a well deserved bow.

No, the T.H.L. championship has not yet been won, but the team is at present assured of first place in the prep group, and is improving with every game.

It is really too early to predict, but it is safe to say this much: from goaltenders Peter Kelly and Ted Malczuk to leading scorer Bill Borron, the Minor Bantams are worthy representatives of St. Michael's, and we wish them all the luck in their quest for the T.H.L. laurels.

Fr. Thompson's absentee-landlord management of the Minor Bantams resulted in Mr. Ted McLean, C.S.B., taking the reins for most of the season.

Bantams (A's & B's)

The Bantam A's show determination vs. the Minor Midgets in a practice game.

Farm teams are the life blood of senior competition even as farms provide the life blood of cities. One noted St. Michael's club, the bucolic bantams (A&B class), despite the miscarriage of a hard winter, came through with its quota of young hockey hopefuls. Dogged by disaster in the early departure of Norm Dewhurst for the publication fields and Commissioner Father Whyte, who was forced by the bitter blow of pneumonia to head south (where he is reported to be organizing the Phillies' spring roundup), our Bantams' farm system emerged successfully under the direction of master herdsman Mr. E. A. O'Reilly. Ed and Gord McMahon, and Tom Williams, student coaches, corralled victories for our skillful young stampeders.

Minor Midgets

Guided by Jack Lanergan, the Minor-Midgets had a good season. The forward wall was sparked by Peter Lee, "Mo" Moreau, Charlie Burns, John Halligan, Gene Scanlan, Frank Glionna and John Younder. On defence, Capt. Gino Artuso, Bob Cranin, Mike McDonald and Frank Howarth played clever hockey.

In goal, Frank Levick and Tom Greene alternated equally well. Among their more remarkable feats were victories over Civitans; once with only seven men and no goalie (Bob Cranin performing as a rover), and again over the same team to the tune of ten to one, when Charlie Burns got five goals!

The Minor-Midgets promise to give Rhodes and Dennis House teams (the pick of the T.H.L.) a real run for their money.

Frank Glionna shoots at Tom Greene as Charlie Burns and "Mo" Moreau fight for position. Angelo Comi and Gene Bowles provide opposition.

St. Michael's Midgets

Charlie McCarthy makes it difficult for the Downsview goalie as Bill Roche looks on and Jack Dockeray innocently straddles his man's stick.

This year the Midgets entered the T.M.H.A. and played all their games at Maple Leaf Gardens. Against the strong opposition of Rhodes, Marlboros, and Downsview the Irish fought doggedly, and succeeded in defeating each of these opponents at least once. Over Stockyards S.M.C. triumphed twice, while bowing once. Despite their miniature size, Capt. Bill Roche, Jack Dockeray and Charlie McCarthy were a constant threat to the opposition. On the second line Paul Midghall, Bill Colvin and Dave Greene, all minor-midget age, played a strong game too. The defence of Len McGravey, Joe Dietrich, John Pascht and Tom Ormesher were steady, and gave good protection to Bob Dodds and Gerry McNamara in the Irish goal. As alternates, Pete Grossi, Bob O'Garman and John Flood filled in wherever necessary. Credit is due to Joe Collingbourne and Walt Kruzel for their fine coaching.

Paul Midghall attempts to retrieve the puck as Dave Greene and Len McGravey get set for the pass-out. (Vs. Downsview)

St. Michael's Buzzers

The Buzzers throughout the 1950-51 season maintained their second place standing in the Junior B Big Six. In a total of nineteen league games St. Michael's won eleven, lost six, and tied two for a total of twenty-four points. With this record behind them the Buzzers entered the semi-final playoffs with the Brampton Regents in a best four out of seven series. This series carried into the seventh game, with Brampton taking the series. It became apparent as the series ended that Brampton, a much older and bigger team, had outlasted the younger but game Irish squad. St. Michael's, failing to end the series early, had lost.

Sparking the Irish to victory throughout the year was a young man from the Northern confines of this Province who goes by the name of Tom Lemon. Small in stature but certainly not lacking in ability Tommy along with line mates Tom McCarthy and Joe Schnurr twitted the ego of many an opposing goalie by slipping the puck into the twine innumerable times. Tom was the leading scorer for the team this year. Up from last year's Midgets came Paul Knox and Jim Logan and centering these two wingers was Jack Caffery up from Minor Midget ranks. One of the most potent lines in the league, this dipsy-doodling trio brought joy to the double blue supporters and sorrow to the enemy. Led by Captain Gord Harrison, the line of Bill Sexton and John Clark plus Harrison was a powerhouse in full steam. All three missed a considerable amount of time due to injuries, but this did not prevent Gord from being the third highest scorer on the team.

Patrolling the back lanes for the Irish were D'Arcy McDonald, (it was unfortunate that D'Arcy suffered an injury in the fourth game of the playoffs. This injury kept him out of the two remaining games and his absence was keenly felt), Alex MacDonald, Marc Reaume, Walter Kruzel, Bev Bourke and Gene Cuccia. It was little wonder that the opposition gave considerable thought to this formidable sextet before becoming rash enough to approach the Irish net. Marc Reaume, a newcomer to St. Michael's from Windsor, Ontario, was a very welcome addition to the team this year and Marc's resourcefulness and ability to use his head earmarks him as an up and coming young defenceman who will bear watching.

The task of guarding the twine was divided between Farrell Crook and Dino Baem. Both of these net minders performed their tasks admirably, and with this year's experience behind them they should be standouts in next year's Junior B competition.

Majors

St. Michael's Majors of nineteen fifty-fifty-one, were coached by a former St. Michael's, NHL, and AHL hockey Star, Johnny "Peanuts" O'Flaherty. Handicapped by the lack of experienced material of former years and a series of bad breaks Johnny did the best with what he had.

The team was sparked by the outstanding play of Captain Bill Dineen, and "Waltzin'" Willie Marshall. Both of these hard working centres deserve praise for their all round efforts. Playing wing on the Marshall line were Jack Weldrake and Tommy Fyles, two fast skating, effective two-way players. Dineen's wingmates Bob Sobourin and Bill Lee gave many an opposing goal-keeper maments of anguish in close plays around the net. The rookie line centred by Mike Ratchford with Murray Costello and Danny MacDonald on wing impraved steadily throughout the season and by season's end ranked right along with the other lines in offensive power. Ed Plata, out most of the season with a severe injury, came back in time to bolster a weakening team.

Patrolling the back lanes for the Irish was the Quintet composed of veteran Neil Buchanan and rookies Bob Schiller, Art Clune, Joe McCann and "hustling" Hal McNamara. This fearsome fivesome struck terror into the hearts of many an opposing forward who dared to venture inside the Irish blue line.

The custodian of the twine, Eddie Chadwick, was the nemesis of many of the leagues high scorers as he thwarted their scoring attempts time and time again and helped the Irish to many a victory. Chadwick's stand-in, Gerry Young, (the little man who was always there) filled in capably when called upon.

CORSAGES: INEXPENSIVE BEAUTIFUL

On Friday evening, January 26, some 275 couples, mostly St Michael's students and their dates gathered in our beautifully decorated gymnasium for an evening of pleasant relaxation and entertainment. At any time during the evening, students could be seen standing on the gym floor or on the balcony in a state of dumbfounded admiration of the lavish surroundings. The flower-decked stage housed Stan Patton's orchestra, which provided very fine music for dancing. Sparkling intermission entertainment provided by Robbie Robertson, a great comedian and magician, shone very brightly among the many highlights of the evening. The Cafeteria was transformed as if by magic into a luxurious lounge, where students, alumni, and priests could be seen exchanging pleasantries. Refreshments were served in the lounge throughout the evening. Dancers were seen to take a few minutes off from the night's entertainment to pause reverently in front of the beautifully decorated shrine of the Blessed Virgin on the north end of the balcony. The climax of the evening came when Bill McLaughlin escorted lovely Judy Horner, a St. Joseph's student, to the stage where she was crowned Queen of the Ball by Mr. Donald McDonald, President of the Old Boys' Association. In accepting this honour Judy displayed the charm that has made her a favourite in youthful circles. Credit for the success of the dance must be given to Father Crowley, Hugh MacKenzie, Jim Halleran and all those who gave so generously of their time and efforts. Many veterans of the social whirl such as the suave and urbane Mr. Bill O'Connor contend that this dance was the best high school dance ever held.

HARRY KEENAN

St. Michael's Dramatic Club

For several years now the Dramatic Society, under the direction of Father Phelan, has come through with many fine productions in spite of the very many difficulties under which it had to work. The new gymnasium-auditorium with its fine new stage has done much to eliminate many of the above-mentioned difficulties, and the Society has branched out in every department. With the three new rooms at the disposal of the members, the technical and art departments especially have taken on new life.

The head technician, Peter Boulton, ably assisted by Bill Noonan, Jim Bethune, Don Rowley, Hugh Kelly, and Rogers Tomenson, built the six battens of lights, and connected them to the new switchboard built during the Summer by Pete and Paul Broadhurst, head of the technical squad for the past two years. It was under the direction of another former member of the Society, Dennis Foy, that many new pieces of scenery were built, as was also the set for the November production, "Arsenic and Old Lace", the old Broadway farce. The big auditorium was packed for three nights, and we can definitely say that the first play in the new school was a great success.

This play introduced several new actors to the play-going public, and brought back some of the old ones to us too. Peter Regan, who starred in two major plays in the Museum Theatre, played the part of Abby Brewster, sharing honors with Richard Pegis, a newcomer. Both did a remarkable job of two difficult parts. John Donnelly was very convincing as Teddy, the bugle boy. A terrific job of acting was done by John Nealon as Jonathan, the lead. Charlie Green's portrayal of Doctor Einstein was, we think, just what the author had in mind, and that is saying everything. Very special mention must be made of the very excellent performance turned in by Michael Quealey. All of this of course could never have been accomplished without the fine supporting cast of Bob Lopechuk, Gerry Fitzgerald, Jerry Johnston, Chester Zaluga, Michael Mohan, Sam Scala, Michael Finerty, and Michael Murphy. The make-up was done to perfection by two former members of the Society who received their training in the old days at the Bay Street School, Allan Anderson, and Gary McDonald.

For the second play this year, Father Phelan has chosen the smash London comedy "See how they run", and as this is being written the daily rehearsals are taking place. For this play Jim Bethune and Hugh Kelly have moved from the technical department and taken two important roles.

The art work for all our productions has been done by Richard Carlton and Stanley Wyszkowski, and the Dramatic Society is very proud indeed to number two such talented artists among its members.

As the year draws to a close we can look back upon many happy hours spent in the interest of the drama. The ground-work has been laid for the future, and the school can look forward to great things from the Dramatic Society, one of its most active and flourishing organizations.

The Band

In the years past the band has had its headquarters in a building separate from the rest of the school. This year the band room is housed in the south-west corner of the lower floor. As a few stray notes found their way to the upper parts of the building, we were more conscious of our band.

At student rallies, when the band was there to accompany our songs, we found additional pep. The football games were enlivened, too, by the snappy airs which our musicians so capably played. Their easy transformation into an orchestral band for the Annual Spring Concert displays their definite versatility.

To a degree, we are aware of the time and effort spent to perfect each of the pieces in its unique repertoire. The competent leadership of Fr. Whelan, the Faculty Moderator, and Mr. Mathé, the Director, underlies the renown our band has achieved during the past year.

The active interest shown by both has assured, and shall continue to assure the improvement of these young men, individually as well as collectively.

The Loretto Choral Group is made up of 226 young ladies from Loretto College School and Loretto Abbey.

In the centre on the left is Father M. Whelan, C.S.B., Faculty Director of the Music Department of St. Michael's College School. On his left is Msgr. Ronan, Director of St. Michael's Choir School, who was guest conductor at the Concert due to the death of Professor César Borré on the eve, you might say, of the Concert.

Professor Borré was a native of Belgium, and a musician of the very highest order. The impetus that music at St. Michael's received with his coming will never cease to be felt.

The Eleventh Annual Concert will again be held in Massey Hall on April 18, 1951. Notice the future tense. Unfortunately we are going to press before that date. But the Loretto Choral Group is with us again, and the above is a faithful picture, except for some new (and more numerous) faces.

The Blessed Virgin's Sodality

This year the Sodality was reorganized on a voluntary basis. An attempt has been made to establish a foundation for a strong organization in the future.

The Sodality has undertaken various duties during the year.

Rogers Tomenson and Bob Johnson have been actively engaged in the mailing of Catholic literature to the west with the help of several donors.

Joe Dietrich has faithfully looked after Benediction servers at noon time.

Some Sodality projects, such as the shrine of Don Bosco and of Our Lady in October, were the work of Richard Carlton and Stanley Wyszkowski.

At the first Mission sock-hop the Sodality sign painters and checkers did their bit to help the Mission Society along.

A special project was the preparation of several posters on the declaration of the dogma of the Assumption.

A beautiful set of vestments was donated to the Sodality by the Mission Society for the Chapel.

The "deaf and dumb" committee was composed of several boys, such as Gerry Dodds, Jack Hladun and Ed Arbour. Classes in the language were given willingly by Sister Frederica of the Sisters of Loretta.

The Sodality on the voluntary basis is certainly different from that of 1949-50 and promises well for the future.

To Enlighten Those Who Sit In Darkness' This is our motto here at St. Michael's.

This year, the purpose of our Mission Society was to make every boy at St. Michael's conscious of his part in the Mystical Body of Christ. Through his sacrifices, he was to help propagate Christ among the less fortunate people of the world, and by doing so, to bring Christ into his own life.

The zeal and spirit of self-sacrifice of all those connected with the Missions, whether it was the Mission Council, who spent long hours in controlling and planning the interests of the Society; the Missions Representatives, who kept the Missions going by their daily perseverance; the Missions Money Rollers, who gave so freely of their time to participate in this important auxiliary work, or the Mission Artists, who kept the Missions before the eyes of the student body at all times,

MANUAL TRAINING

Now, if you drop a perpendicular.
Forms Man a Training class with Mr. Ronan

Among the advantages of the new St. Michael's College is a modern well-equipped manual training room. Stocked with excellent machines and tools, it is comparable to any shop in the city of Toronto.

Mr. Ronan had the advantage of teaching in four of the best Collegiate shops while attending the Ontario College of Education last year and gained many helpful ideas on setting up this course.

This year the course was confined to the Grade IX classes, but it will eventually be made available to more of the students.

The students have shown great enthusiasm for this work so that the shop has become a popular rendezvous for them and even for many of the staff in their free time.

Many useful furnishings for the school have been produced in the shop including all of the crucifixes and many of the accessories for the gym and various offices.

And so St. Michael's continues to mould the men of tomorrow, neglecting no phase of manly, Christian education.

St. Luke, the editor of St. Paul's epistles, and his faithful companion on many of his journeys, was a Grecian physician trained in the best scientific and most cultured schools of learning in his day. He may, therefore, be looked upon as the first of a noble array of Christian men of science.

St. Luke's Society, named in honour of him, seeks to pioneer in the realm of science. This year was devoted chiefly to developing an instrument which will produce kodachrome micro-slides to be used in biology and methods of processing film.

Ski Club

The St. Michael's entry in the Ontario Catholic Athletic Conference Ski Meet, held at the Chicopee Ski Club in Kitchener on February 10th, continued to uphold the athletic traditions of the school.

The team captained by Ted Piwowarczyk and including Gerry Day, Rene Gauthier, Christian Primavesi, George Hoshowatiuk, and Tom Day literally white-washed the opposition. In the two mile cross country the Irish crew led St. Jerome's by two seconds and De la Salle by ten. St. Michael's also placed first in the Slalom, Jumping and Downhill for a total of 16 points.

It is hoped that the meet will be an annual affair in Conference competition.

With the advent of skiing as a new spart in the school comes another new athletic activity, the art af rowing no less. Captained by Bill O'Connor and Joe Bucher a group of ambitious students coached by Mr. Vic Griffiths will carry the school's colours in the annual school boy regatta sponsored by the Argonaut Club on May 24th.

The Debating Club

Shortly after Christmas the Debating Club took up arms against Oakwood Collegiate on the side of the spoken word against the written. Despite the valiant efforts of Barry Callaghan, Paul Molineaux and Peter Bolton, Oakwood emerged victorious.

A second debate was held with Regiopolis in Kingston, in which S.M.C opposed capital punishment. John Tuck, Dave Marshall and Doug Cocklin spoke for St. Michael's.

The Titanic

An addition to the longer poems of the Upper School English course, this year, was the dramatic verse narrative, "The Titanic", by E. J. Pratt. Mr. Pratt's poetry lends itself so well to broadcasting that a group of students decided to enact the Titanic over the school's modern loud speaker system. Ryerson Institute's F.M. station, C.J.R.T., learning of this group's activities, become interested and suggested that the project be enlarged. An hour long production of the poem was given over this station on February 15. It is hoped that the other longer poems of the course may be also produced.

Blue Recorder

After that long trek from Clover Hill up here to Bathurst Street, it was discovered that the old Double-Blue had failed to follow and so the students, drawing up a new constitution, formed the Blue Recorder. This paper, though smaller and, in some respects, perhaps a little inferior to its famous predecessor, has at least cured a couple of the age-old ills of the previous publication. A greater number of issues has reduced somewhat that ancient cry " . . . nothing but stale news". And too the fact that it is distributed gratis has all but eliminated the old circulation pains. The staff this year, though limited in several ways, has striven to produce a good paper — the result of which rests with the students. The hope is that next year the paper will be able to resume its former proportions and carry on the tradition of the old Double-Blue.

ED. McGRATH

The Religious Bulletin (unfortunately conspicuous by its absence during Fr. Whyte's convalescence) records the definition of the two latest dogmas concerning our Lady (almost one hundred years apart): the Immaculate Conception and the Assumption.

It must be recorded too that quiet unassuming Eleven One has held the lead in the Mission standings since Christmas.

The staff of St. Michael's Tower is a strictly non-profiting organization . . (That's enough, I said!) OK, Father. The staff of St. Michael's Tower is strictly an organization. How's that? (Would you mind getting on with that write-up, Finlay? Yours is the last one in! How can you blame . . .) Right away, Father!

A new system has been developed by the Yearbook Staff this year. Whenever you see anything to be done you make a note of it, put it up on the office bulletin board, and forget it at once.

Hey, Father, what about these artists? (Well, Ligoure did the line drawings introducing the sports. Et cetera.) Oh yes, and Stan did the mathematical abstractions on the ad pages. What did Gary Des Roches do? (The crest on page 117.) Hmm. For that he gets his picture in the Yearbook. (They all did more than that!) Did Gary do the cow? (No, Zukowski did the cow.) What's Zukowski's first name? (Look it up in the files.) Have we got files? . . . Hmmmm . . . Joseph. That's that. And Taras is doing Chesterton. What'll I say about Fr. Stoba? (Just blame him and Fr. Vince for the book.) OK. Fr. Vincent Thompson planned the book and then conveniently skipped out to St. Basil's parish. Fr. Stoba is also responsible. How's that? (Perfect! Nice and vogue.)

What should I say about the advertising staff? (Just refer them to page 85.) Hey, I'm in that! (Well, you're the widest awake in it!) Glancy and Gibson are awake! (Let's talk about something else. For instance, when are you going to get at that write-up!) Oh, yes. I was on the advertising staff. Let's see . . . Should I just draw that picture of an advertising manager with one foot in the waste basket and ink all over him and D'Agostina saying "Say, Mac, don't you think I aught to come back tomorrow?" (Hand me that ruler, will you? The long one.)

I ought to end up with a flourish. Mention a flourish. (The biggest thing that happened in here this year was your getting down on your knees and leading the fourth Glorious Mystery for Sister Martin of Regina Laudis when we heard she was sick.) Oh that!

Martha Guild

Mrs. M. J. Kelly — 1st Vice-President

Mrs. G. L. Chambers — Treasurer

During the past year the mothers of the boys, for the first time in the century-old tradition of St. Michael's College School, took a very active role in the affairs of the school. A year ago, an auxiliary was formed under the patronage of St. Martha, this auxiliary comprising the mothers of the boys, their friends and all the friends of the Basilians. Although high hopes were entertained by the staff for the Martha Guild, some doubt was present in everybody's mind as to just how it would function. It was an entirely new project at the school and could easily have floundered. However under the enterprising and gracious presidency of Mrs. C. E. Knowlton, the Martha Guild surprised even the most optimistic, and at present is concluding a year that has been quite successful spiritually, socially and financially.

The social activities of the Guild have included the Opening Tea in June, during which the school was inspected by approximately five thousand people; the publishing of the Souvenir Programme for the official opening of the school in September; a bridge and fashion show in November and a bingo in February. An afternoon bridge was held on March 31st. The Membership Tea for the coming year, will be held at the School on the first Sunday of May, May 6th.

Elections for the Martha Guild for the coming year will be held in April. The great interest that the mothers of the boys have shown in the school, and the amazing amount of work they have done to make the school a better place for their boys have been an inspiration to staff and students alike — and will surely bring many blessings from St. Michael to the members of the Guild.

EDITORS NOTE:

If the Martha Guild's efficiency were ever a question with the staff, it was no longer so after an incident in the preparations for the fashion show. A number of the boys were setting up tables under the direction of the ladies and of Fr. Mullins who grooms the gym. Fr. Mullins, dressed for action in jacket and jeans, was encountered by a mother who took him for a student. "There's a good lad now; just take this dust cloth and see how you can make those tables shine; that's the fine big fellow!" Whereat Fr. Mullins fell with lowered head to some industrious dusting.

Scholastic Subjects

Religion

THE TOWER now reviews some of the subjects taught in our school. Religion has first place on our curriculum. In religion classes, we learn of God, the Guide and the Goal of our lives. Pope Pius XI called this study "the foundation and crown of youths' training."

Training must be tested to prove its worth. How well are we using what we have learned? Are we following the counsels of our Guide toward our Goal? To answer these questions three days are set aside each year for a Retreat — retreat from books, daily cares, and worldly events; retreat to an intimate communion with God. This year Fr. Pennylegion, as Retreat Master helped us, by his talks and advice, to evaluate our answers.

To depict Religion, as a scholastic subject, we have choosen the liturgical symbol of Catholic Action, shown on the opposite page. This emblem pictures the unity of the Catholic hierarchy, and the participation of the faithful in its work. The Chi-Rho monogram stands for Christ, the tiara for the Pope, the mitre for the Bishop, and the three crowns signify, in ascending order, the baptized, the confirmed, and the ordained members of the Church.

From the root of Christ comes all power. He is the principle of unity and direction to all the various functions of the members of His Mystical Body.

By Baptism the Christian becomes a member of Christ, and thereby receives a small share in His priesthood. The priestly power conferred by Baptism is a passive one; it gives us a right to the reception of the other sacraments.

Confirmation, signified by the centre crown, expands that power and renders it more active. The character impressed on us in Confirmation is specifically the character of the so-called "lay priesthood". As confirmed, adult militants in the Church of Christ, we have the privilege and duty of sharing in the apostolic work of the hierarchy.

Holy Orders, represented by the third and largest crown, makes man "another Christ", in a very special sense.

Thus the baptized and confirmed faithful, under their pastor, are guided by their bishop, who in turn is directed by the Supreme Pontiff. Such is the Church: one sole Body, active in all its diversified and duly subordinated parts.

Father F. Pennylegion

A word about the front and back cover (inside). The monogram found there is a photograph of an Alpha and Omega carved in the front of Our Lady's altar in Holy Rosary Church. Alpha and Omega being the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet, and used as they are by Our Lord Himself in the Apocalypse, to signify Christ — our Source and our Goal, it seems difficult to find a more fitting symbol with which to begin and end a book about a school. That is, the alphabet is a fundamental thing in school, and in books; and so too is Christ, Who is Truth.

What, that is, is the alphabet for? To signify truth. What are books for? To convey the truth. What are schools for? To teach the truth. What is truth? Christ. We are proud of our front and back cover. It sums things up.

Kenneth Carville

In Memoriam

It is hard to believe that he is gone. To understand life and death is very difficult. Since it is difficult, we do not spend much time contemplating it. But since the death of Ken we feel that death is a subject that can hit very close to home. When I last saw Ken alive on Thursday, I do not think it would have been possible for me to believe, if someone had told me, that he would be dead before the following Monday. I would not have believed it, but such has been the case.

For us who loved him, the only epitaph that is fitting is: "He gave himself generously". The Mission Society, and the Sodality were benefited from his association. The Debating Club and his homeroom, 11-4, were enriched by his example and leadership. His friends, and they were many, his associates in the Altar Society at the Cathedral, his teachers at St. Michael's, his parents and brother and sister, all mourn his death.

British Tour for Canadian Boys

During the summer of 1952, Michael Quealey, now of 13A, set out on an all expense paid tour of Great Britain. Mike was one of fifty boys chosen as representative Canadian youths. These tours which have been instituted by industrialist Mr. Garfield West, have the objective of heightening understanding and good will between members of the British Commonwealth.

Mike and his fifty fellow travellers did not have smooth sailing in the beginning. Their ship the Franconia ran again and in the St. Lawrence, whereupon they took to the air and almost crash landed at Gander.

Covering over three thousand miles by bus a day they visited scores of castles, palaces, factories, cathedrals, met dignitaries social and political, made jaunts on motor torpedo boats, took part in numerous sports, including cricket. Strange to relate, they are able to report victories over their English opponents in the latter game. Unorthodox techniques is their explanation.

Not the least enjoyable part of the trip was seeing the picturesque England and Scottish countryside.

They embarked for home at Liverpool on the Ascania, August the tenth. This time they stayed afloat.

At Harringay Arena, July 19, with Barbara Ann Scott and Michael Kirby, Canadian stars of the ice show, "Rose Marie" Michael Kirby is a St. Michael's graduate, (1942). (Michael Quealey is second last on the right)

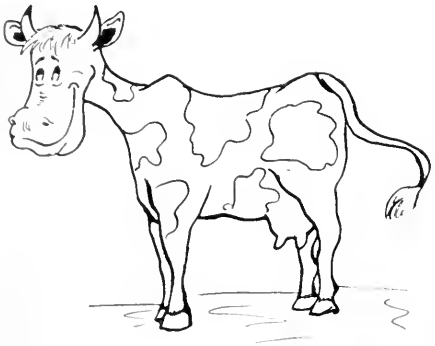
French



Why do so many writers prefer pudder[+] to simplicity? It seems to be a morbid condition contracted in early manhood. Children show no signs of it. Here, for example, is the response of a child of ten to an invitation to write an essay (its genuineness is guaranteed) on a bird and a beast:

"The bird that I am going to write about is the Owl. The Owl cannot see at all by day and at night is as blind as a bat.

"I do not know much about the Owl, so I will go on to the beast which I am going to choose. It is the Cow. The Cow is a mammal. It has six sides — right, left, an upper and below. At the back it has a tail on which hangs a brush. With this it sends the flies away so that they do not fall into the milk. The head is for the purpose of growing horns and so that the mouth can be somewhere. The horns are to butt with, and the mouth is to moo with. Under the cow hangs the milk. It is arranged for milking. When people milk, the milk comes and there is never an end to the supply. How the cow does it I have not yet realized, but it makes more and more. The cow has a fine sense of smell; one can smell it far away. This is the reason for the fresh air in the country.

"The man cow is called an ox. It is not a mammal. The cow does not eat much, but what it eats it eats twice, so that it gets enough. When it is hungry it moos, and when it says nothing it is because its inside is all full up with grass."

The writer had something to say and said it as clearly as he could, and so has unconsciously achieved style. But why do we write, when we are ten, "so that the mouth can be somewhere" and perhaps when we are thirty "in order to ensure that the mouth may be appropriately positioned environmentally"?

From PLAIN WORDS, by Sir Ernest Gowers

+"Double-talk"? "Pudder" is taken from Lear's prayer to "the gods who keep this dreadful pudder o'er our heads".

Any connection between the above story and French is simply ridiculous.

Collegeville, Minnesota

Sir Ernest Gowers, Rogate, England

Sheed and Ward, New York

C is for "credit", and above is our credit line-up: the artists in their various fields to whom we are deeply indebted for the 1951 edition of St. Michael's Tower.

Regina Laudis is a Benedictine monastery in Bethlehem, Connecticut, the story of whose founding was told in the motion picture "Come to the Stable". Sister Martin of Regina Laudis did the drawings of Our Lady and St. Michael on pages eleven and thirteen. They are true originals, done especially for this our first volume. Thank you, Sister.

Regina Laudis is perhaps too young a monastery and too unassuming to be well known, but it excels in arts and crafts religious.

The Catholic Women's League has been dealing with the sale and distribution of His Holiness' coloured lithographic portraits, and copies of this photo may be obtained through them.

Abbaye de Jouarre, Jouarre, Fronce, is the address of the monastery which did the Madonna and Child on page sixty-nine. It is one of a great many very inexpensive and very beautiful cards obtainable from there.

The Liturgical Press, Collegeville, Minnesota did the liturgical symbol on page 105. They too are Benedictines.

Sir Ernest Gowers of Rogate, England, wrote the book "Plain Words" on the use of English by civil officials, an excerpt from which is found on page 107. Thank you, Sir Ernest, for letting us play fast and loose with your excellent book. "The Cow" was originally ear-marked for the English page, but was exiled to foreign pastures to make room for Mike Quealey's merry landing in the land of 1066 and all that.

The story opposite will introduce many of our student readers to another Englishman, Gilbert Keith Chesterton. "G.K." died when most of you were just lads. This story, which we reproduce with the very kind permission of Sheed and Ward of New York (and which by the way, is not at all as crazy as it seems to be) will give you an idea of the immense good nature of its author. The drawings are G.K.'s, as well as the story. He has written a good many books — on history, and people (e.g. St. Thomas Aquinas and St. Francis of Assisi) and on things in general, which are a little bit difficult, for younger students anyway, but which you ought by all means to read some day.

The photography for the book was done by Michael Burns of Toronto, to whom hats off for a job well done. The other photographer you saw around the school, the fair-haired one, was Frank Lennon. He also had a finger in the picture-taking; a very competent finger.

The portraits of Fr. McCorkell, Fr. Regan, and the graduates, were taken by Leatherdale Studios of Toronto.

If you remember a fellow with real red hair leaving the building about 9:00 a.m. occasionally, loaded down with a lot of pictures, that was Red Powell of Rapid Grip and Batten. They are the engravers and we don't know what their name means either, but we hope they don't change it because it has too much life. What is an engraver? Well, an engraver makes your picture able to get into the book. Ask Red.

And if by any chance you saw a fellow leaving the building late at night with a big bundle under his arm, that was artist Eric Nasmith, or maybe artist Jim Ireland, (pp. 106 ff.) who along with Greg Hoy, are some more "Saturday Night" people who deserve great thanks.

You haven't seen much of Roy Gurney and the rest of the people down at University of Toronto Press who are printing the book, but we hope you will some day.

Now to let you read Chesterton's story, which is in colour thanks to the exacting work Taras Stefurak of XIII-4 did on some thirty Addressograph-Multigraph plates. For him the last cheer, not less resounding than the others.

Our advertisers have given scope and encouragement to our student artists and added a very great deal to the attractiveness of the book. Do patronize them.

Who was sitting on the very sharp point of a Rock balancing himself. The Knights, seeing by his sugar-loaf hat white beard that he was a Magician, asked him where they could find the Princess Japonica (for so the Princess, who is a relative of mine & desires to be ~~dis~~ described.)
"The Princess Japonica" replied the Magician "lives in the Castle beyond the last Wood in the World, in the place where it is always Sunset. She cannot come and visit anyone and noone can visit her because there are only two roads to it: and the Right hand Road is held by a Giant with one Head and the Left hand road by a Giant with Two Heads." Then the first Knight said with great excitement (he was Bromley-Smunk on the Mother's side and you know what they are) "I will soon clear the giant out of the way. Then they all roared with laughter and told him how silly he was to think that he could kill the Two-Headed Giant when they couldn't kill even the One-Headed Giant. But he went off all the same, with his head in the air & he found the Two-Headed Giant on the great hills where it is always sunset. GENERAL INFORMATION

Location. — Saint Michael's College School is situated at the corner of Bathurst and St. Clair Ave. W. It can be easily reached from the Union Station, and from any part of the city by connection with Toronto street cars. The address is St. Michael's College School, St. Clair Ave. W. at Bathurst, Toronto 10, Ontario.

System of Education. — While holding firmly to the best sanctioned methods of the past, St. Michael's College School also pays due regard to the clearly established results of modern pedagogy. Its curriculum of studies is in conformity with the recommendations of the Department of Education. Since Honour Matriculation is now required for entrance into the University of Toronto, the average student will take five years to complete his High School course. Saint Michael's College School is an approved Private School.

Moral and Religious Training. — Mere book learning and mere intellectual training are not sufficient in themselves to build up a firm Christian character in the boy. To accomplish this aim, it is necessary to ground the student in Christian principles and to give him a systematic drilling in the practice of Christian virtue. To attain this end there is a graduated course in Christian Doctrine; and a religious atmosphere, through daily Mass, frequent Communion, an annual retreat, and various Religious Societies, is thrown around the student's life, so that each boy is thoroughly schooled in practical Catholicity. Day, week, and month are so arranged as to allow nothing but good influences to work upon the mind. Special stress is laid upon the power of prayer. Boys are encouraged to begin and end every act of life with prayer. Class hours, study, alternating with carefully supervised free time, result not only in keeping young minds and bodies actively engaged almost all the time, but also supply for the intervals when not so engaged, healthy topics of interest and conversation.

Retreat. — During the year three days are set aside for the consideration of the welfare of the soul. Spiritual instruction and exercises are given by some experienced preacher and the boys spend their time in the silence of meditation and prayer.

The junior years are the critical period in a man's life. The Retreat may be called a halting place, where the boy takes his bearings, traces out the road which Providence has designed for him, and receives the necessary directions for the journey.

It forms the climax of the religious life of the year and frequently the turning point in a boy's career.

A STUDENT FAILING TO MAKE THE RETREAT IS NOT CONSIDERED DESIRABLE

Home Study. — The schedule at the College is so arranged for resident students that there is ample provision for study periods, during which all themes may be written and all recitations prepared. With regard to non-resident students, we earnestly request parents and guardians to insist that their charges devote at least two hours to home study. No parent should be so gullible as to accept excuses or "explanations" for consistent neglect or diminution of this study period. It is useless to expect good results unless sufficient time is given to home study, so that the topics explained in class may be thoroughly mastered. The school Authorities exhort parents to co-operate with them in developing habits of patient and thorough study, so necessary a preparation for the work of the upper grades. Parents are invited to confer from time to time with the Principal or Home Room Teacher regarding the progress of their sons.

Examinations and Reports. — Term examinations are held at Christmas and Easter, and the final examination in June. Within a few days of the completion of these examinations, a report of the work, of the attendance and of the punctuality of the student is sent by mail to the parents. Parents are earnestly requested to manifest a practical interest in the progress of their sons by examining these reports carefully and by the adoption of emphatic measures, should the record of the term's work be unsatisfactory.

In order to be considered in "good standing" in the yearly promotions from class to class, a student must obtain at least sixty percent (60%) of the total marks obtainable, and not less than fifty percent (50%) in each subject. A student who, at any period of the year shows himself unfit for his class, will be placed in a lower class or requested to withdraw from the school.

The School Day. — Classes begin at 9 o'clock in the morning and continue until 3.00 in the afternoon, with an intermission of 40 minutes at noon for luncheon and Benediction. During this time no student is allowed to leave the school premises without the express permission of the Assistant Principal.

Transfers or certificates will not be granted to those students whose accounts with the Treasurer are unsettled.

No student will be received from another school unless he furnished credentials duly signed by the authorities of such school.

Resident Students. — The daily routine is so arranged for resident students as to provide amply for their spiritual, intellectual, and physical development. The rising hour is 7 o'clock. Holy Mass and breakfast follow in order. After breakfast a brief recreation is enjoyed, and at 8.30, the boys retire to the study hall. The regular school day then follows as already outlined. At 3 o'clock the students are free to recreate either on the campus or in the recreation hall. Then follows a study period from 4.30 until 5.30. Supper is served at 5.30 o'clock, after which another hour is devoted to recreation. The evening study period extends from 7.00 until 9.00. At the close of study, night prayers are said, and then the students retire to their beds.

No special uniform is worn by the students. The ordinary clothes worn by other High School students is all that is required. Except when taking recreation, each boy must wear a coat, collar and tie. Besides complete outfits of clothing for summer and winter, each boarder should bring towels, bedroom slippers, a bathrobe, toilet articles, and a small mirror. All personal clothing should be carefully marked.

About once a month, marks and conduct being satisfactory, and the Assistant Principal having been notified in each case by the parents, a student may spend from 3.00, Friday, until 5.00 p.m. Sunday at his home.

All minor expenses, as for books, stationery, etc., are on a strictly cash basis. Hence each student should be kept supplied at all times with sufficient funds to meet current expenses. Nothing spoils a boy so effectively as extravagance in this matter. It is most unwise for boys to carry large sums of money about with them. The College will not pay bills contracted by students.

Day Students. — Parents are requested to co-operate with the school authorities in seeing that their sons are always clean and neat about their person and their clothes. In journeying to and from school, each boy must wear a collar and tie and suit coat. In inclement weather, topcoats and overcoats are in order. Sweaters, jackets of every description, are forbidden, except during recreation periods.

Though the school authorities are not responsible for the conduct of students while journeying to and from school, nevertheless, any boy who is reported for misdemeanours on the street or street-cars, will be expelled from the school.

Whenever a student is detained at home for any class period, parents should notify the Assistant Principal by telephone, preferably between 8.30 and 9.30 a.m., of the same day. Upon his return to school, the student should bring a note of explanation from the parents, specifying definitely the time during which the boy was legitimately absent. These notes are necessary for our files.

Parents are informed that, except in cases of extreme urgency, students will not be allowed to leave their school duties to answer telephone calls.

The school assumes no responsibility for books or other articles which may be lost. A locker for books and clothing may be secured at a reasonable fee.

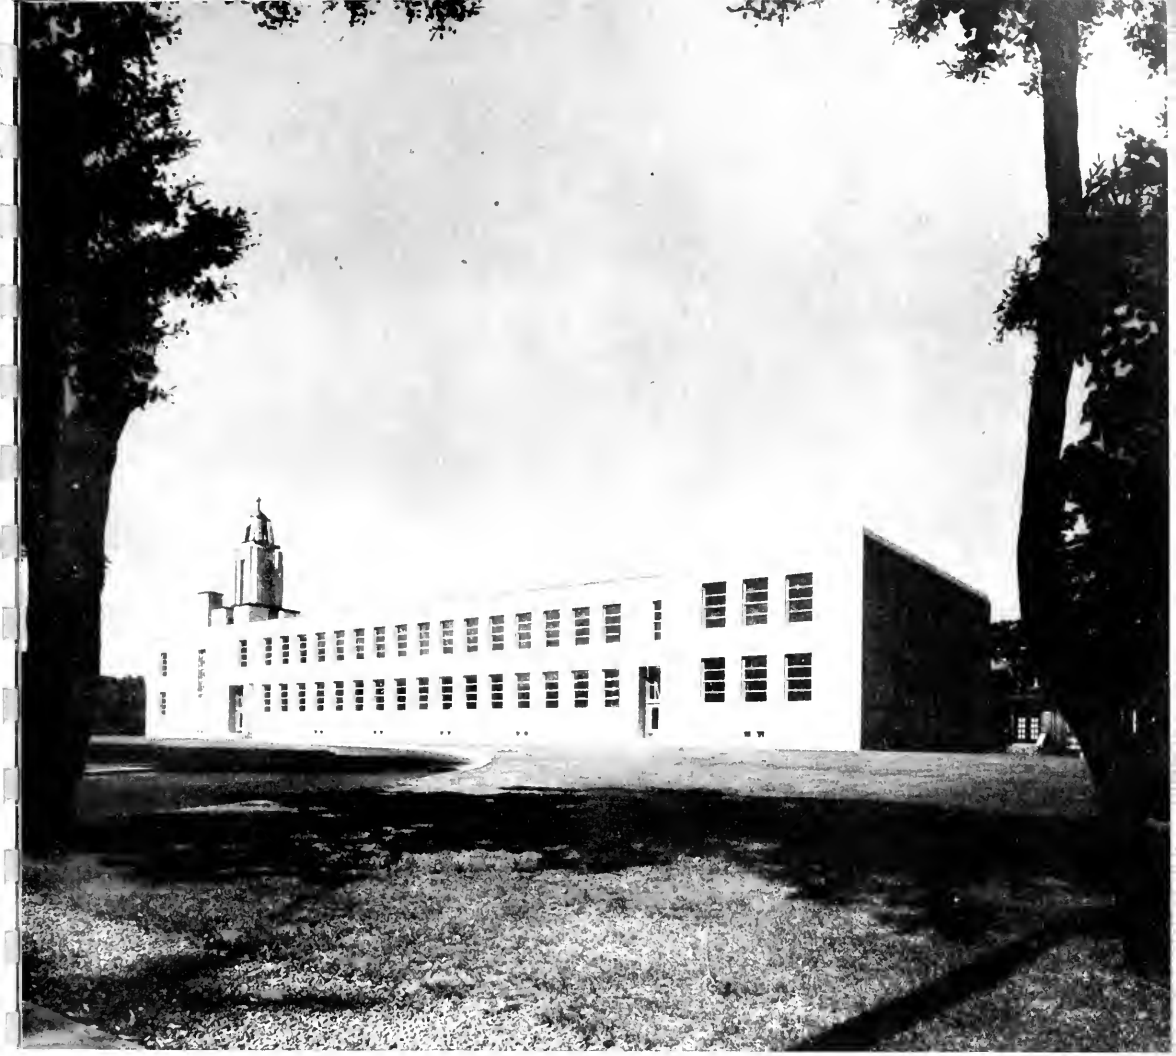
Any student who fails to make the annual retreat will be dismissed as undesirable. Missions, retreats or Forty Hours' Devotions conducted in the home parish are not considered as substitutes for the Students' Retreat.

Since the students are here with the Basilian Fathers only in trust, it is quite reasonable that the parents should co-operate with the school in every possible way to further the progress of their own children.

Each student is considered as far as possible, an individual case; any suggestions made by parents will always be treated with respect.

Athletics. — Sports will always be a great influence with the normal boy. Good health, the foundations of which are laid in youth, are rightly considered an important help to serious study and a valuable asset for success in after life. For this reason, all healthful forms of athletics are encouraged by the school authorities. Nevertheless it is our firm conviction that athletics come second to academic endeavour. At no time should sports interfere with daily class work. Parents are exhorted to see to it that the athletic activity of their sons does not interfere with their home studies. Prudent parents will not permit their sons to participate in any athletic endeavours, or to belong to any athletic organizations, without the express sanction of the school authorities.

Students participate in games at their own risk. The school assumes no responsibility in cases of injury suffered by players.



Let's take a stroll through the school...

St. Michael's Tower now invites you to "have a look around" the school itself, before we take a regretful farewell. But only 'till we see you next year.

The pictures to follow were taken by Panda Studios of Toronto for Mr. Cormier, the school's architect. We think they are a particularly fine bit of work, and wish to thank Mr. Cormier very heartily for the use of them.

To the Ensign, Canadian Catholic Weekly, a vote of thanks is due for the first picture (above). Before using it themselves the Ensign people neatly removed a promising young sapling which was blocking the view.

Here you are as you come along Bathurst, north from St. Clair.

Neilson's JERSEY MILK CHOCOLATE

for ENERGY!

It is a striking fact that many of the outstanding athletes train on chocolate because it is a food and an energy producer. Chocolate is a creator of vigor and nerve force, and supplies the body with that extra energy that added punch that is necessary to win.

Jersey Milk Chocolate is the finest of all milk chocolate. Experts say the habit of eating a bar of Jersey Milk Chocolate every day is a healthful one to form.

Remember, Jersey Milk Chocolate is purest and best.

Out here is the parking lot (or, if you like, the tennis courts), and the campus; a bouncing thirty acres north of St. Clair Ave. It is being filled and levelled at present by Rayner Construction Co. who are building the middle part of the new subway. It is not very photogenic right now and is often referred to by uncharitable names like "the Soup Bowl". But just wait.—

Good-bye for now —
Good to have been with you, folks!
Till next year.
God love you.

We're saying good-bye too — good-bye to a grand school
